Hello Jeffrey and Amit,

Below is the e-mail from Chris Streit regarding the large Sentry investment that we have discussed. It was originally supposed to be $75mm for December, and about $50mm for January. Now it looks like about $153mm, all for February 1st.

Jeffrey, based upon our conversation on Friday, I have confirmed that we may accept this.

I am also working on another fairly large ticket. The UBS structured products desk is looking at a $30 to $40 million investment (Amit, you will recall our conference call with them last week). I understand that due to another extremely large deal the capacity is basically gone. Please let me know if I need to set expectations with UBS...

Thanks so much,
Scott

Subject: Platinum's Fairfield Sentry Subscription

Scott,

1. Platinum All Weather Fund will be the investor in Fairfield Sentry
2. Subscriptions will be approximately $70 million from one source and $83 million from a second source, for value date February 1, 2007. It is understood that the funds must be in the account 3 business days prior to the value date.
3. It's a direct investment so our current administrator, Fortis, will deal with the sub docs. We have forwarded these documents directly to Fortis.

I hope this gives you all the information you need to assure us protection of this capacity.

Best regards,

Chris
